Assassin's Creed® 2 follows - all the way to the title that has become the fastest selling new IP in video game history. A new one has appeared in the long-awaited game. In Assassin's Creed II, you will be able to choose your line of fate in a new company that is divided into two main factions. The first is Arno's organization, which is under the control of the Knights Templar, which opposes the Assassins. The second is the Order of the Templars, which fights the Assassins, and which, in turn, is Arno's organization. But, in addition to these factions, the game also includes three others. You have to work for no single faction and make decisions accordingly.
